8 WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR STUDENT ORGANIZATION

*1

Become registered with Student Government prior to the date set by the Student Government Director of Communications.

5

Attend the annual Freshman Activities Fair and All Campus Activities Fair to increase membership.

2

Increase your presence on campus by advertising via social media, on-campus ad request, and traditional flyers.

*6

Attend the training session led by the Student Government Executive Team to learn about the allocation process and student leadership.

*3

Submit a follow-up form of all the activities that your group has done throughout the year by the due date by the Student Government Director of Communications.

7

Get involved on campus and in the community with volunteer programs, campus-wide events, and tabling sessions.

*4

Submit a group photo by midterms in order to be eligible for allocations for the current semester.

8

While Student Government can provide up to $5,000 to each registered group, allocations are distributed first come first serve. We highly recommend you fundraise for your group and apply for allocations early.
